POLICIES:
RULES OF CONDUCT
Overview
All persons using the library are responsible for their own safety, the safety of children in their care, and the security of their own personal belongings. Yakima Valley Libraries is not responsible for the safety of the Customers against their own acts or the acts of other Library Customers or Patrons.

It is the intent of the Yakima Valley Libraries that enforcement of this policy will be conducted in a fair and reasonable manner. Library staff and/or local law enforcement officers have the right to intervene to stop prohibited or disruptive activities and behaviors. Failure to comply with the Library’s established rules and policies could result in removal from the premises and expulsion from the library for a period of one day to one year, or in arrest or prosecution. Violations could also result in the restriction or termination of library privileges and services, including the use of library computers and other equipment – RCW 27.12.290.

- Any Library Customer or Patron that is legally trespassed will be banned from all libraries in the Library District.
- Any Library Customer or Patron that is banned in one library will be banned from all libraries in the Library District.
- Any Library Customer or Patron that is banned from the library may be given a verbal warning – all attempts will be made to provide the patron with written documentation of the ban but does not invalidate the ban if written notification to Library Customer is not achieved.
