Mendoza began with an update on the Compensation and Classification study. She and Slaughter are reviewing McGrath's final report and plan to present it at the upcoming Board retreat on August 12th. The presentation will include some budgetary impact scenarios for the Board to consider. Mendoza shared that YVL hopes to make significant changes until 2025 or 2026 because it would be a lengthy process. She reminded the Board that they could make a budgetary decision at the retreat or a later regular Board meeting.

She then shared that YVL is having an event at the Central Library to celebrate eighty years as an established Library district. The event is planned for Saturday, August  $10^{\text{th}}$ , from 2:00 to 4:00 pm, and will include a new time capsule put together by the community. Mendoza commented on the capsule placed behind the granite wall many years ago at Central's entrance and said there won't be an unveiling as previously hoped due to the cost and potential damage to the wall. She said the event details would be shared with the Board if they would like to attend.

Next, Mendoza highlighted the Key Indicators on page thirty-eight of the Director's Report. She said YVL is either on track or exceeding every goal except website visits. Apart from that, many of the goals met the halfway mark in June, and others will be fully met before the end of the year. Mendoza commented on the eNewsletter and social media followers' goals as examples of exceeded goals. She said she's collaborating with Gama to see if the goals were too attainable and if new ones should be set. Regarding website visits, Gama and her team have placed URL links in promotional materials to increase website traffic. She said the team is also considering whether this goal should continue to be tracked. Garcia-Ortiz added that many patrons use the Libby app instead of the website. He said the number would increase if those visits were counted. Trustee Watkins commented that it could be best to measure user satisfaction with the website visits. Mendoza said the YVL team is processing each goal and thinking of ways to make the website mobile-friendly and told the Trustees they would continue to be updated on the Key Indicators.

In concluding the Director's Report, Mendoza asked if there were any questions or comments. Trustee MacKintosh said she noticed that the Southeast Library continues to underperform. Mendoza replied that the Services and Facilities Assessment would inform future decisions about locations like Southeast. She assured the Board that they would continue to be updated. President Charbonneau asked when the last time was that the Southeast Library was doing well, and Mendoza replied that it was before COVID. She added that the Community Center has implemented services replicating YVL services, such as having a library of their own and offering different programs.

President Charbonneau asked for an update on the Union Gap Library. Mendoza said the electrical panel has been installed, but P&G has not provided a date for powering it up. This has put a hold on the punch list, which could be a few weeks out. Mendoza said the Interim City Manager approached her about doing a ribbon cutting on September 11th, but since the opening date is TBD, YVL is waiting on a confirmation. Lastly, Mendoza said she told the Interim City Manager that it would take approximately four to five weeks for YVL to move into the space. They're working on a realistic timeline with a possible move-in date in September.

There were no more questions or comments.

V. New Business

a. 2025 Budget Calendar

Discussion/Motion

Attention was brought to the recommended 2025 budget calendar on page 57 of the board packet. President Charbonneau noticed that the meeting start times reflected 3:00 pm and requested that it be updated to 3:15. Mendoza agreed and said that would be modified. Mendoza informed the Board that the budget framework is similar to last year, except for adding the Classification and Compensation Study and the Services and Facilities Assessment. Trustee Watkins asked if any of the upcoming board meetings would be considered special meetings. Mendoza said the regular meetings would follow any study sessions and the budget hearing in November. She also noted that the dates on the calendar coincide with the County. Trustee Watkins asked when YVL should get the actual numbers from the County, and Slaughter said they would provide YVL with the numbers in October. Trustee Watkins asked if the numbers were reliable, and Mendoza replied that they were because of the annual 1% cap increase.

Additional conversation:

Trustee Watkins asked Mendoza if she had spoken with the Director at Seattle Public Library about their system being down due to the data breach. She replied that they are mostly back up and that YVL is thankful it wasn't impacted like Seattle. President Charbonneau commended Mendoza on how the team handled the issue.

Vice-President Liebrecht asked Slaughter about deferred maintenance. At the June 24th meeting, Vice-President Liebrecht asked how much money it would take to meet all of YVL's facility needs. Slaughter replied that he's working on that project, but Mendoza said she isn't sure they would have accurate numbers until the Services and Facilities Assessment is completed. She noted that the assessment would be workshopped with the Board and that the Services and Facilities Committee would have potential options for the Board to consider at the retreat. Vice-President Liebrecht said to focus on urgent facility matters on the buildings YVL owns.

MOTION: Trustee Liebrecht moved to approve the 2025 Budget Calendar. Trustee Panagakos seconded. Motion passed unanimously.

VI. Adjournment

MOTION: Trustee Liebrecht moved to adjourn the meeting. Trustee MacKintosh seconded. Motion passed unanimously.
