Yakima Valley Libraries Celebrates Hispanic Heritage Month with Pop-Up Art Gallery

Yakima, WA – In celebration of Hispanic Heritage Month, Yakima Valley Libraries is excited to partner with Mezcla Collective to host a special pop-up art gallery that honors local Hispanic artists. The event will take place on Saturday, October 5, 2024, from 12:00 PM to 4:00 PM at the Yakima Central Library, located at 102 N 3rd St, Yakima.

Curated by Mezcla Collective, this unique art gallery will feature an inspiring collection of works by talented local artists, all centered on the theme, "Celebrating Hispanic Local Artists." Attendees will have the opportunity to appreciate a diverse range of art that reflects the cultural richness and creative spirit of Hispanic artists in the community.

“Yakima Valley Libraries is proud to celebrate Hispanic Heritage Month by partnering with Mezcla Collective and our community’s incredible artists,” said Sully Gama, Marketing Manager. “This event not only showcases their remarkable work but also brings our community together to celebrate the stories and voices that shape Yakima.”

The event is free and open to the public. Guests of all ages are welcome to attend, explore the artwork, and meet the artists. This collaborative effort highlights Yakima Valley Libraries' ongoing dedication to promoting inclusivity and supporting local talent.
