Free Books, Face Painting, Photo Buttons, and More at Yakima Valley Libraries' Día de los Niños Celebration

Yakima, WA — April 30, 2026 — Yakima Valley Libraries invites families to a fun-filled celebration of Día de los Niños/Día de los Libros on Wednesday, April 30, featuring free books, hands-on activities, and family-friendly entertainment at Yakima Central Library.

Event Details

Location: Yakima Central Library

Time: 3:00 PM – 5:00 PM

This free community event is designed to celebrate children, encourage reading, and create joyful experiences for families across Yakima Valley.

What to Expect:

- Free books for kids to take home and keep
- Face painting for all ages
- Snacks for families to enjoy
- Custom photo buttons to capture the day
- Craft stations and creative activities
- And more surprises throughout the event

Enter to Win — Visit Any Library or Join Us at the Event

Families can enter a special prize drawing by visiting any Yakima Valley Libraries location on April 30, including during the celebration at Yakima Central Library.

How to Participate:

- Visit any Yakima Valley Libraries branch on April 30
- Show your library card to receive one entry ticket
- Check out books or materials to earn additional tickets
 - Each item checked out = one additional entry

Whether you attend the event or stop by your local library, every visit and every item checked out increases your chances of winning.

The drawing will take place on May 4, 2026

All activities, free books, and drawing entries are available while supplies last. No registration is required.

Families are encouraged to come early, explore, and enjoy a day filled with fun, creativity, and reading.
